

Quiz

For a chance to win your own Sam Mouse let us know what Sam is holding at each appearance by drawing a line from the item to the place – we've given you clues by drawing the places.

When you've spotted all 12 appearances drop the completed form in the Art Cafe over one of the weekends of the exhibition – good luck!

One entry per person, last entry Saturday 13 May at 3.00 pm, prize draw will take place at the Art Cafe on Sunday 14 May at 3.00pm.

Donate

We are pleased to nominate the charity and community fundraisers that supported the Art Cafe in its first year by running Saturday coffee morning events. We are aiming to raise £2,000; The PCC of St Mary's and St John's Whitchurch on Thames is collecting the donations on our behalf which will then be distributed to the following causes:

- Alder Bridge PTA
- Alzheimer's Society
- APT – Action for Pangbourne Toilets
- Breast Cancer Care
- British Heart Foundation
- Building for the Future
- Friends of St Mary's & St John's
- Motor Neurone Disease Association
- Pangbourne Women's Institute
- Parkinson's UK
- Progressive Supranuclear Palsy Association
- Stepping Forward
- Sue Ryder: Duchess of Kent Hospice
- Thames Valley Air Ambulance
- The Parish of Pangbourne with Tidmarsh and Sulham
- The Royal British Legion
- The Whitchurch and Goring Heath History Society
- Whitchurch and Goring Heath Twinning Association
- Whitchurch Hill Women's Institute

Yarn Bomb Alert!
Whitchurch on Thames Bridge
29 April to 14 May 2017

Thames Path Together Community Art Project

Pangbourne and Whitchurch on Thames are divided by a river and united by a bridge. The Thames Path Together community art project is a celebration of Whitchurch Bridge and the Thames Path that have brought us together to make and exhibit art to raise money for charitable and community causes.

Take a stroll over Whitchurch Bridge to discover:

- Yarn Bombing
- Painting and Collage
- Weaving and Needlework

Keep your eyes open for Sam Mouse to complete our quiz and a chance to win your own Sam Mouse. If you're around at the weekend – pop into the Art Cafe for delicious homemade cakes and to place a bid in the Silent Auction.

About Us

The community has been working together since last October to create artworks based on the Thames Path. The starting point was yarn bombing – a form of street art where public spaces are covered in knitting and crochet. By expanding the definition of yarn to mean any spun thread; artists, needle workers and weavers, as well as, individuals, art and craft clubs and community groups have joined us to offer you an imaginative display of artworks.

Visit

You'll find ample parking on the Pangbourne side of the River, then stroll across the historic Whitchurch Bridge festooned with art from the Thames Path Together community art project.

Regular trains run from London Paddington, Reading and Oxford. Alight at Pangbourne Station; from the main entrance turn right and walk downhill, cross the road by the railway bridge into the turning with Stanrod Motors on the right. Follow the path through to the main road and turn left towards Whitchurch Bridge.

If you're around at the weekend pop into the Art Cafe, RG8 7DF – opposite The Ferryboat Inn – for delicious homemade cakes and to return your completed Sam Mouse Hunt Quiz.
