We're appealing for witnesses and information following an incident of exposure on the Thames Path from Whitchurch-on-Thames going towards Goring-on-Thames.

It happened last Sunday 9 August around midday.

A man was on a bicycle when he pretended to fall off. Two women approach to help and when they get closer the man was naked from the waist down touching himself inappropriately.

He is described as a white man in his late twenties with a normal build. He had brown hair and was wearing a faded black or grey t-shirt and was riding a dark coloured mountain style bike.

If you have any information regarding this incident, please call us on 101 quoting reference 43260419408
